

Chunghan Yang

Of Counsel, Taipei

T: +886 2 27020208

E: chunghan.yang@dentons.com.tw

About

Overview

Dr. Yang Tsung-han is an Assistant Professor at the Department of Environmental and Cultural Resources at National Tsing Hua University and a Senior Consultant at Dentons Taiwan Law Firm.

Dr. Yang's expertise lies in a broad range of environmental and sustainable development law fields, including International Environmental Law, Climate Change and Energy Law. International Trade and Economic Law, Business and Sustainable Development, and Green Technology Innovation.

Activities and Affiliations

- Chartered Member of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (MCI Arb), 2023/11-present
- Ministry of Science and Technology (MOST) LIFT Overseas Talent Bridge Program Scholar
- Ministry of Education (MOE) International Environmental Law Scholarship for Overseas Studies
- Chevening Scholarship Recipient, UK Foreign and Commonwealth Office
- Expert Consultant, Environmental Protection Administration, Executive Yuan
- Honorary Mentor, Small and Medium Enterprise Administration, Ministry of Economic Affairs
- Legal Consultant, Green Trade Project Office, Ministry of Economic Affairs
- External Legal Consultant, Permanent Representative of the Republic of China to the World Trade Organization (WTO)

Experience and Insights

Experience

- LIFT 2.0 Overseas Talent Bridge Program Scholar, Ministry of Science and Technology (2019)
- C-EENRG Research Fellow, Centre for Environment, Energy and Natural Resources Governance, University of Cambridge (2018-present)
- OIES-Saudi Aramco Research Fellow, Energy Studies Centre, University of Oxford (2018 - 2019)
- Newton Fund Environment Policy Scholar, British Council (2018)
- Chevening Scholarship and TECO Climate Change Scholarship Recipient, UK Foreign and Commonwealth Office
- MOE International Environmental Law and Energy Law Scholarship for Overseas Studies

Insights

- A Study on the Competitive Order between Transnational Tech Giants and Local Markets – A Case Study on Advertising Resources, 2022
- Current Development and Regulatory Norms in Industrial Paper Use in the Digital and Environmental Era, 2021
- Thoughts and Responses of Competition Authorities under Major Economic Changes – Case Study: Impact of the COVID-19 Pandemic, 2021
- Exploration of Antitrust Behavior and Consumer Rights, 2020

Area of focus

- Fair Trade Law and Antitrust Law
- Energy, Environment, and Natural Resources
- Government Procurement and Administrative Contracts
- Trade, World Trade Organization (WTO), and Tariffs
- Transportation Industry
- Startups and Emerging Companies

Education

- PhD, University of Cambridge

Languages

- Mandarin
- Taiwanese
- English